Twin Rocks Undersea Memorial Policy and Procedure Statement Placement

If for any reason Twin Rocks Undersea Memorial is unable to deploy a scheduled monument placement at a committed time, Twin Rocks Undersea Memorial will reschedule that placement within a reasonable period of time. Twin Rocks Undersea Memorial will be responsible for any additional costs associated with the new scheduled placement, for the actual placement. However, Twin Rocks Undersea Memorial is not responsible for any charges and/or fees associated with family and other attending costs, such as, but not limited to, hotel rooms, gas/fuel, airline tickets or fees, charter boats and/or meals associated with the delay. It is understood that placements of all monuments may be delayed or limited due to material availability, vessel availability, weather and/or other possible factors beyond our control. All monuments are permanently placed and will not be retrieved.

Monument Movement and Research

Twin Rocks Undersea Memorial has carefully researched and personally designed our unique monument shape to be the most reliable and stable monument available today, anywhere in the world. Twin Rocks Undersea Memorial will make every reasonable effort to place the monuments so that they will not be affected by storms or the impact of boating activities. Under no circumstances will Twin Rocks Undersea Memorial be responsible for any damage or relocation of monuments caused by acts of man, nature, storms, or maritime accidents. From time to time, Twin Rocks Undersea Memorial will, at its own cost, hire divers and/or allow researchers to access our placement sites to inspect sea life activity. This information may or may not become public. During this research, monuments will not be disturbed and will be treated with dignity and respect at all times.

Multiple sets of remains

Twin Rocks Undersea Memorial will accept multiple sets of remains for interment into a single monument under the following conditions:

- a. A maximum of 4 (four) sets of cremated remains may be interred into one monument. Cremated pet remains may be interred with family remains, at the request of the family. Each set of pet remains will be considered as 1 (one) family member.
- b. Multiple interments must be performed at one time, at the time of crafting. We cannot store remains in waiting.
- c. An additional fee for handling multiple sets (beyond 4 sets) of remains may be charged, at the discretion of Twin Rocks Undersea Memorial.
- d. There may be limitations as to the names included on any plaques attached to monuments.
- e. Any special requests beyond the standard arrangement for the monument may incur additional fees.
- f. Cremated remains are interred permanently and cannot be retrieved. Additionally, monuments are always placed permanently and will not be moved intentionally. GPS locations will be provided to the family for reference.

Pricing and Placement

Prices shown reflect a temporary rate reduction, until further notice, and are for placements at our Signature Twin Rocks placement area only. Additional location/travel fees will apply to any other placement site.

Scheduled Timeframes

Twin Rocks Undersea Memorial will make every effort to assure timely crafting and placements of all monuments. It is understood that these monuments are handcrafted construction projects that can be delayed by weather and/or other factors beyond our control.

Broken Monuments

Rarely, monuments break as they are crafted or during transportation. In the unlikely event this should happen, Twin Rocks Undersea Memorial will, at its expense, recast the monument or repair the monument, at its choice.

Payment

Payment in full is required before crafting and/or placement of any monument.

PLEASE NOTE: Twin Rocks Undersea Memorials Policies and Procedures are subject to change without notice.
